ABOUT command

The ABOUT command is used to display some information about GstarCAD.

Command
ABOUT
Ribbon: Help > About Menu: Help > About

Function Description:

 This command could display some information about copyright and product. The product information contains product version, service pack, serial number, license type and valid date. Users could save them as text file..