PICKAUTO system variable

Function Description:

The PICKAUTO system variable is used to control automatic windowing for object selection.

Type : Bitcode
Saved in : Registry
Initial value :1
Range : 0,1

The setting is stored as a bitcode using the sum of listed system variable values.

System Variable Value:

0 : close automatic windowing selection and crossing selection.
1 : if the cursor is not located on objects, start to window or cross selection when clicking

Online URL: https://www.kb2.gstarcad.com.my/article.php?id=1744