

XFADECTL system variable

1926 GstarCAD MY /KW July 28, 2021 System Variables 0 2330

Function Description:

The XFADECTL system variable is used to control the fade degree in reference that editing in-place, this setting only has effect on objects that are not editing in reference.

Type : Integer

Saved in : Registry

Initial value : 70

Range : 0 ~ 90

This system variable could control the fade degree of alternate object representation that displayed in a dimmed state, such as annotative object alternate scale representations.

The SELECTIONANNODISPLAY system variable controls whether to display alternate scale presentation for annotative objects.

Online URL: <https://www.kb2.gstarcad.com.my/article.php?id=1926>