

ATTDISP command

1975 GstarCAD MY /KW August 2, 2021 CAD Commands 0 2424

The ATTDISP command is used to control whether to display attribute in a graphic drawing.

Command Access:

Menu : View > Display > Attribute Display > On

Command : ATTDISP, (or 'attdisp for transparent use)

Command Prompts:

Enter attribute visibility setting [Normal/ON/OFF] <Normal>:

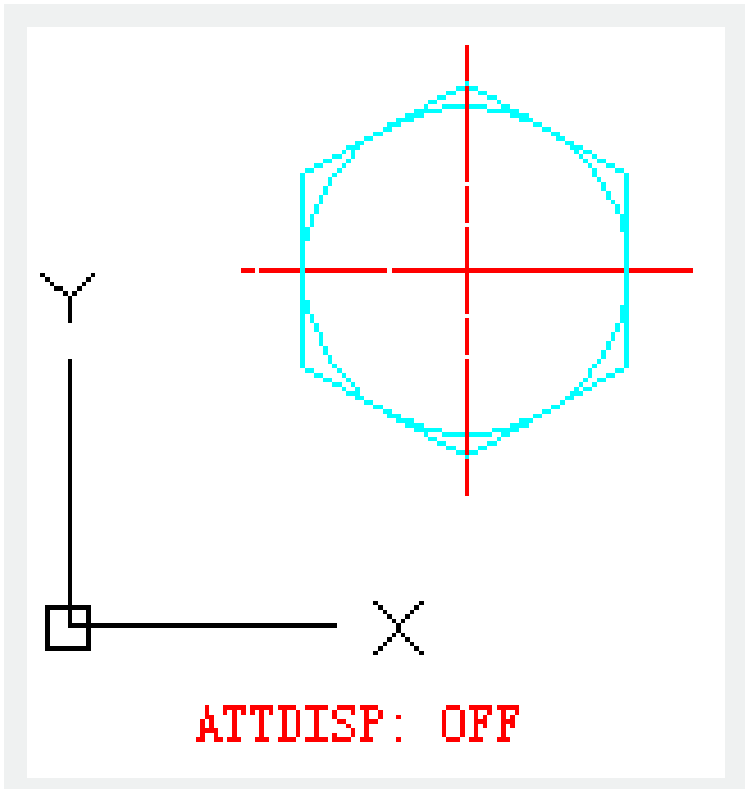

Relative Glossary:

Normal : Keep current visibility setting of each attribute. Display visibility attribute and hide invisible attribute.

ON : Display all attributes.

OFF: Hide all attributes.

Online URL: <https://www.kb2.gstarcad.com.my/article.php?id=1975>