SHAPE command

The SHAPE command is used to insert shapes from loaded shape files.

Command Access:

Command : SHAPE

Command Prompts:

Enter shape name or [?]:

Relative Glossary:

Shape name:
Load shapes.. If the shape belonged to external reference that attached to current drawing as a block, it will be labeled as external dependencies. Users could use it by reloading.
?:
List shape or shape definition files. Inputting "*" under the command prompt, it will display shape names.