GstarCAD 2027 · Command Reference

Commands > S Command > SAVEAS

Function Description:

This command is used to save a copy of the current drawing with a new file name.

The Save drawing as dialog box is displayed.

Users can save the current draw by inputting the file name and specifying the file type in the Save drawing as dialog box. The current drawing can be saved in DWG and DXF formats. The drawing saved in DXF format has effect on their performance.

Saving the file with a specified name. If the file already named, it is saved with a new name. The current drawing can also be saved as a drawing template.

If the FILEDIA system variable is set to 0, command prompts are displayed rather than the dialog box.
